VALNEWS

APRIL—MAY 2018

We are pleased to present our N° 2 Valnews 2018 that covers the months of April and May, spring months for Europe and autumn for South America. Both seasons invite you to trip and we hope that the topics sent will help you to complement your travel offers. The temperature in the Bolivian Altiplano goes down a lot at night but in the day the magical sun of the Andes allows to take pictures with an exceptional brightness. The millenary hospitality of Bolivia will be at the service of its clients and we are sure that they will return to their origin with a unique memory of their trip to South America. With this motive we wish you very happy Easter celebration.

GRAN PODER FESTIVITY

Devotion, syncretism, colors, music and joy. Perhaps this could define one of the most important Bolivia's cultural expressions as the so-called Entrada del Señor del Gran Poder, a pagan-religious celebration that takes place in La Paz city, this 2018 will be on May 26 and 2019 on June 15. The so-called Greater Festival of the Andes has around 30,000 dancers and 4,000 musicians who perform a majestic tour through the most emblematic streets of the city with dances like Morenada, Caporales and Tinkus. A show like no other that promises to dazzle anyone who doesn't know it yet.

BARROQUE MUSIC FESTIVAL

A high cultural and historical wealth awaits at the Chiquito's region circuit, Santa Cruz de la Sierra department. In this Bolivian's tropics area during the colonial era the Jesuit Missions were carried out, which among other things left an important legacy in the musical arts with Baroque compositions that now transcend thanks to the Baroque Music Festival that this year will attend from April 13th to 22th. The high artistic level and the profound cultural significance of the works motivated UNESCO to declare in 1991 a World Heritage Site the towns that make up this beautiful tourist circuit.
