GASTRONOMY: CHAIRO PACEÑO

Surely one of the most emblematic dishes of Bolivia's Andean area is definitely the "chairo" whose meaning in Aymara is soup. The combination of typical ingredients of this region such as chuño (dehydrated potato), good grass and chalonga (dry meat) along with others introduced by the Spanish (potato) results in a thick, consistent and full of flavor soup that served hot gets you full of energy.

TITICACA LAKE — SUN ISLAND

Problems between two communities of the island do not permit to perform the Chincana trek. We offer an alternative trek on Moon Island and Yampupata peninsula.
